Wrongful Conviction Day, October 2
wrongfulconvictionday.com

Innocence Canada is a Canadian non-profit organization dedicated to identifying, advocating for, and exonerating individuals convicted of a crime that they did not commit. In addition, they work to prevent future injustices through legal education and reform. Find out more at www.innocencecanada.com

Western University is participating in International Wrongful Conviction Day by bringing out of the shadows the real impacts of wrongful convictions. We hope that the campus community and the public will come to hear our guest speaker, and raise awareness about wrongful convictions. #wrongfulconvictionday

11:00, Tues. Oct. 2, 2018
McKellar Room (UCC 290)
Western University

Into the Shadows

Jamie Nelson

convicted and served time for a crime that never happened

convicted later of another crime that never happened

years spent in prison

solitary confinement

EXONERATED.

Guest Speaker, Jamie Nelson, will tell his story, and speak about wrongful conviction in general, and its effects on individuals and society. Everyone welcome.

Brought to you by:

Western University • Canada

Department of Sociology
Faculty of Social Science

Faculty of Law

Western Pre-Law Society

Please contact socevent@uwo.ca if you require information in an alternate format, or if any other arrangements can make this event accessible to you. See http://accessibility.uwo.ca/resources/maps/maps.html for the campus accessibility map and http://accessibility.uwo.ca/resources/disruptions/index.html for service disruptions.