Jasmine Ha is recruiting two Graduate Student Assistants (GSA) to work on research projects focussing on climate change and migration in Canada. The successful candidates will work under the direction of Dr. Ha to review academic literature, review existing data sources, and assist in writing reports/manuscripts. This position provides the opportunity for students to develop self-driven academic research projects (e.g., additional training in data analysis will be provided). The position is open for both MA and PhD Sociology students. There will be flexibility in deciding the number of hours worked per week, as well as hybrid/remote work option. The hourly pay is $25/hour. Please send a cover letter and CV by email to Dr. Ha at jasmine.ha@uwo.ca
