COURSE DESCRIPTION

This class examines the theory and practice of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI). First, we consider how key sociological concepts including power, oppression, and intersectionality frame EDI in Canada. Next, we critically examine EDI in Higher Education, Sport, the Criminal Justice System, and Media using a case study approach.

Prerequisite(s): Registration in third or fourth year in any program.
Unless you have either the prerequisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. The decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Anti-requisite(s): None

Course Weight: 0.50

COURSE OUTCOMES/LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Understand EDI from a sociological perspective.
- Apply sociological concepts to the practice of EDI.
- Critically examine policy, culture, and organizational structure through an EDI lens.
- Develop practical solutions to solve problems of EDI in various domains of social life.
- Explain the importance of EDI considerations to stakeholders.
- Present complex ideas in accessible ways.

COURSE MATERIAL

Course material will be available on OWL.

COMMUNICATION

The best way to reach me is through email (mcmullin@uwo.ca). I will endeavour to reply to messages within 24 hours between Monday and Friday and within 48 hours on Saturday and Sunday.

METHOD OF EVALUATION

The evaluation methods described in the course outline are essential requirements for the course.
Students are expected to attend all classes and to come to class prepared to critically discuss the readings and other course material.

Students will be required to upload all assignments to OWL.

<td>Concept Paper and Infographic: Write a three-page paper (i.e., approximately 750 words) that explains the relationships between the concepts that were discussed in Part 1 of this course and describes how EDI can be understood from a sociological perspective. The paper should reference the course readings, cite all relevant sources, and include a bibliography. The bibliography is not included in the page count. Using this paper, develop an infographic or concept map that identifies and illustrates the connections and relationships among the concepts discussed in Part 1 of this course.</td>

Assignment #2  Essay: Write an 8-to-10 page (i.e., 2000-2500 words), double spaced paper that critically analyzes a social domain (one that was not discussed in this course, e.g., health care systems) from an EDI perspective using the concepts discussed in this class. In this paper, discuss practical solutions and recommendations to the EDI issues that you uncover. The analysis and recommendations should be supported and informed by secondary evidence (six or more sources). All relevant sources must be cited and included in a bibliography. | December 6, 2023 | 50% |

COURSE CONTENT AND SCHEDULE

Students should check the course OWL site frequently to access the online lessons, course material, and for key deadlines. Students are responsible for checking the OWL site on the morning of each class to determine whether the class will need to be conducted online.
