Course Description:
This course will review sociological perspectives on youth criminal offending and on the legal and moral regulation of youth. Canadian social policies with respect to the criminal behaviour of young persons will also be examined. Students will be expected to participate in weekly online discussion of the readings worth 35% of your final grade.

Prerequisite(s):
The prerequisite for this course is Sociology 2266 A/B.

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites. It is students’ responsibilities to check that that you have the prerequisites for this course.

Learning Outcomes:
At the end of this course students will be able to

- Understand the socio-historical evolution of youth crime and youth legislation in Canada and its impact on youth.

- Identify, analyze and evaluate a variety of theories of criminology, and assess the conceptual differences among them.

- Apply theory and sociological research to interpret youth crime and social responses to it.

- Understand how youth offenders are processed through the criminal justice system, including, contact with police, courts and corrections.

- Demonstrate effective written communication skills and the ability to discuss ideas clearly and articulately.

How to Contact Me:
Please contact me through the course mail/messages or through email at llyons@uwo.ca

How to get important information:
I will post important course information in the Getting Started Module on the course homepage. Other information will be posted in Forums: Course Information. You can also post questions in this Forum.

Scholastic Offences
Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.

Important Policies

Policies for Assignment Deadlines and Examinations:
Weekly online participation is due on Sunday at midnight and I will post a weekly grade for your participation.
Make-up exams will be granted with approved documentation only. If you have a conflict with one of the exam dates, it is your responsibility to discuss it with the Academic Counseling office at least one week before the regularly scheduled exam and provide documentation of the conflict. If approved, you will be allowed to schedule a make-up exam.

If you miss an exam date or the due date for an assignment due to illness or for any other unforeseen reason, you must provide notification of and documentation for the reasons for your circumstances to your Academic Counselor within 48 hours. If your problem is medical in nature, you should be seen by your doctor on the date of the exam or on the date the assignment is due. If your Academic Counselor agrees that your reasons are legitimate and are supported by your medical doctor’s documentation, you will be allowed to write a makeup exam or hand in your assignment at a later date.

A Note on Plagiarism:
Students must write their assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major scholastic offence (the Scholastic Offence Policy can be viewed in the Western Academic Calendar).

Plagiarism Checking:
All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness
Western’s policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness can be found at https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm. Students must see the Academic Counsellor and submit all required documentation in order to be approved for certain accommodation: http://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/procedures/medical_accommodation.html

Accessibility Options:
Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at 661-2111 x 82147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation. Information regarding accommodation of exams is available on the Registrar’s website: http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/examinations/accommodated_exams.html
